FOIAb3b CONGRESSIONAL RECORD — SEN

1958

drafted by the distinguished junior Senator from Minnesota [Mr. HUMPHREY] and myself, with the assistance of the Wilderness Society and many other outstanding conservation groups.

I ask unanimous consent to have the editorial printed at this point in the body of the RECORD.

There being no objection, the editorial was ordered to be printed in the RECORD, as follows:

[From the Bend Bulletin of July 5, 1958]

THE WILDERNESS BILL

Back in the last session of Congress Senator HUMPHREY introduced the so-called wilderness bill, which this newspaper, along with a number of foresters and forestry groups, opposed.

Opposition to the bill was quite widespread. Both the major land-management agencies of the Federal Government—Agriculture and Interior—objected to it.

There was one basic reason for the immediate opposition to the measure. Most of the opponents feared the freezing of large acreages into a permanent wilderness status by legislative means.

Of course, there are large wilderness areas already. But they have been created by administrative action, which is considerably more flexible than legislative action by Congress.

The need for this flexibility has been obvious during recent years. New methods of handling forests and regrowth problems, along with new means of forest utilization, have made a considerable difference in forest planning, for example. Vast areas which once were considered useless from a commercial point of view—the lodgepole pine and mountain hemlock of central Oregon included among them—are gaining in potential value each year.

At the same time this newspaper for many years has taken a back seat to no one in pointing up the need to preserve various unique features for the benefit of later generations. Many of these features are located within shouting distance of Bend.

True, they have limited use at the present time. But that use is increasing. An increasing number of persons are discovering the enjoyment of recreation areas minus automobiles, motorboats, electric lights, and some of the other doubtful advantages of civilization.

Sponsors of the original wilderness bill have made sincere efforts to meet the original objections expressed to the measure.

Revisions have been made, particularly, that do not put such a hard-and-fast "freeze" on the resources locked up in the wilderness area. As far as this newspaper is concerned, most of the objectionable features either have been removed or so toned down as to make the present version of the bill entirely acceptable.

One of the problems in determining Federal policy on such knotty questions as a wilderness system has been the multiplicity of management of federally owned or federally managed lands.

This Humphrey bill, in support of which Oregon's Senator NEUBERGER has been most active, is an attempt to set up a workable national policy. It deserves support.

Mr. FLANDERS. Mr. President, I am very grateful to the Senate for passing the bill, particularly because it includes former Senator Warren Austin, who has retired, and who would very much appreciate having personal custody of certain decorations which have been granted to him by foreign countries.

It is, I believe, a proper procedure that, so long as officials are in service, they should not hold personal possession of decorations awarded to them by foreign countries, but when they have retired—as former Senator Austin has, after years of brilliant service in this body and after other years of brilliant service, including service as the first Ambassador of the United States to the United Nations—they should have personal possession of such decorations. I am very glad indeed that by the vote of the Senate, former Senator Austin has been given the privilege of having in his personal possession the decorations awarded to him.

SUSPENSION OF EMPLOYMENT OF CIVILIAN PERSONNEL IN INTEREST OF NATIONAL SECURITY—REFERENCE OF HOUSE AMENDMENT TO COMMITTEE

The PRESIDING OFFICER laid before the Senate the amendment of the House of Representatives to the bill (S. 1411) to amend the act of August 26, 1950, relating to the suspension of employment of civilian personnel of the United States in the interest of national security, which was, to stand out all after the enacting clause and insert:

That the act of August 26, 1950, chapter 803 (64 Stat. 476), is hereby amended to read as follows: "That, notwithstanding the provisions of section 6 of the act of August 24, 1912 (37 Stat. 555), as amended (5 U. S. C. 652), or the provisions of any other law, the head of any department or agency of the United States Government may, in his absolute discretion and when deemed necessary in the interest of national security, suspend, without pay, any civilian officer or employee of the Government. To the extent that such agency head determines that the interests of the national safety and security permit, the employee concerned shall be notified of the reasons for his suspension and within 30 days after such notification any such person shall have an opportunity to submit statements or affidavits to the official designated by the head of the agency concerned to show why he should be reinstated or restored to duty. The agency head concerned may, following such investigation and review as he deems necessary, terminate the employment of such suspended civilian officer or employee whenever he shall determine such termination necessary or advisable in the interest of the national security of the United States; Provided, That any employee having a permanent or indefinite appointment, and having completed his probationary or trial period, who is a citizen of the United States, whose employment is suspended under the authority of this act, shall be given after his suspension and before his employment is terminated under the authority of this act: (1) a written statement within 30 days after the suspension of the charges against him, which shall be subject to amendment within 30 days thereafter and which shall be stated as specifically as security considerations permit; (2) an opportunity within 30 days thereafter (plus an additional 30 days if the charges are amended) to answer such charges and to submit affidavits; (3) a hearing, at the employee's request, by a duly constituted agency authority for this purpose; (4) a review of his case by the agency head, or some official designated by him, before a decision adverse to the employee is made final; and (5) a written statement of the decision of the agency head: Provided further, That any person whose employment is so suspended or terminated under the authority of this act may, in the discretion of the agency head concerned, be reinstated or restored to duty, and if reinstated or restored, by action of the agency head under this proviso or pursuant to determination and decision of the Civil Service Commission under section 4, shall be allowed compensation for all or any part of the period of such suspension or termination in an amount not to exceed the difference between the amount such person would normally have earned during the period of such suspension or termination, at the rate he was receiving on the date of suspension or termination, as appropriate and the interim net earnings of such person: Provided further, That nothing contained in this act shall be deemed to require the suspension of any civilian officer or employee prior to hearing or termination: Provided further, That to the extent consistent with the interest of the national security in the light of the facts and circumstances of the particular case, the department or agency head concerned shall utilize, in lieu of other provisions of this act or any Executive order issued under this act, the provisions of section 6 of the act of August 24, 1912 (Public Law 623, 83d Cong.), and section 14 of the Veterans' Preference Act of 1944 in connection with the suspension or termination of employment of any civilian officer or employee.

Sec. 2. Nothing contained in this act shall impair the powers vested in the Atomic Energy Commission by the Atomic Energy Act of 1954 or the requirements of section 161 of such act that adequate provision be made for administrative review of any determination to dismiss any employee of such Commission.

Sec. 3. As used in this act, "national security" means all governmental activities of the United States Government involving the national safety and security, including but not limited to activities concerned with the protection of the United States from internal subversion or foreign aggression. All employees of any department or agency of the United States Government are deemed to be employed in an activity of the Government involving national security.

Sec. 4. It shall be the duty of the United States Civil Service Commission, upon the request of any employee, to review the decision, under this act and under any Executive order issued pursuant to this act, of the agency head concerned in the case of such employee with respect to the validity, truth, and merits of the charges made and with respect to the procedures followed. The Commission shall prepare a written opinion and decision in each such case containing its recommendations with respect to the decision of the agency head. The Commission shall transmit its opinion and decision to the agency head concerned for action in accordance therewith. The determination by the Commission of any question or other matter connected with such review shall be final and conclusive. If any member of the Commission does not concur in such opinion and decision, he may file a dissenting opinion.

Mr. JOHNSTON of South Carolina. Mr. President, the Senate passed S. 1411, and the House has amended it. It is now an entirely new bill. I ask unanimous consent that the amendment of the House of Representatives to S. 1411 be referred to the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service for study.

Mr. CARLSON. Mr. President, I have no objection to having the amendment referred to the committee, for study, but I hope that after it has been considered, it will be reported to the Senate, so that action may be taken on it during this session of Congress.

Mr. JOHNSTON of South Carolina. It is my hope that we will report it back promptly. We will probably have a meeting of the committee on Thursday. I ask that the House amendment be referred to the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service for study.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Without objection, the amendment of the House of Representatives to S. 1411 will be referred to the Committee on Post Office and Civil Service, as requested by the Senator from South Carolina.

AMENDMENT OF SMALL BUSINESS ACT OF 1953—CONFERENCE REPORT

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I submit a report of the committee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendments of the Senate to the bill (H. R. 7963) to amend the Small Business Act of 1953, as amended. I ask unanimous consent for the present consideration of the report.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The report will be read for the information of the Senate.

The legislative clerk read the report. (For conference report, see House proceedings of July 9, 1958, p. 12041, CONGRESSIONAL RECORD.)

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection to the present consideration of the report?

There being no objection, the Senate proceeded to consider the report.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, this is a good report and a good bill. The House receded on 10 of the 14 differences of opinion between the two Houses.

I ask unanimous consent that a statement clarifying and explaining the conference report may be printed in the Record at this point.

There being no objection, the statement was ordered to be printed in the Record, as follows:

STATEMENT ON CONFERENCE REPORT, H. R. 7963, SMALL BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

H. R. 7963, the bill which rewrites the Small Business Act, as reported by the conferees, is a good bill. The bill makes four major changes in existing law:

1. It removes the time limit on the life of the Small Business Administration, and this agency would become a permanent part of the Federal establishment;

2. It increases the revolving fund for business loans by $296 million, which amount is estimated to be sufficient through fiscal year 1959;

3. It raises the maximum loan limit for business loans from $250,000 to $350,000; and

4. It directs the Small Business Administration to assist small firms in obtaining Government research and development contracts and in realizing benefits from Government research and development contracts.

The Senate made 14 substantive amendments to H. R. 7963, as passed by the House. Ten of these amendments were accepted by the House conferees without amendment. The conferees made four substantive changes in the bill as passed by the Senate, and these changes are as follows:

1. The Senate amendment which would enable small-business concerns to obtain a fair share of Government sales was amended to make certain that existing preferences pertaining to the disposal of Federal property would not be disturbed.

2. The Senate amendment which deleted a House provision requiring the establishment of variable size standards for the purposes of Government procurement, within 60 days after enactment, was amended to accept a portion of language recommended by the House of Representatives. This language requires that the definition of small-business concerns, for procurement purposes, shall vary from industry to industry to the extent necessary to reflect differing characteristics of such industries and to take proper account of other relevant factors.

3. As passed by the Senate, H. R. 7963 contained a provision authorizing the Small Business Administration to permit employees to take training courses with payment of salaries and expenses by the SBA during the period of training. Subsequent to passage of H. R. 7963 by the Senate, a general training bill covering all Federal employees was enacted. For this reason, the Senate conferees agreed to delete this provision of the bill.

4. The Senate amended a provision of H. R. 7963 to retain provisions of existing law setting a maximum interest rate of 6 percent on business loans made by the Small Business Administration. As passed by the House, this maximum rate had been lowered to 5 percent. The House conferees were adamant on this provision of the bill, and the conference finally agreed to accept 5½ percent as a maximum interest rate on the SBA portion of business loans.

I believe that the conference has produced a good bill, and I recommend that the Senate approve the conference report.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I move that the Senate agree to the conference report.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The question is on agreeing to the conference report.

The report was agreed to.

STABILIZATION OF PRODUCTION OF COPPER, LEAD, ZINC, AND OTHER MINERALS FROM DOMESTIC MINES

The Senate resumed the consideration of the bill (S. 4036) to stabilize produc-
